Dear Sir,

I have today <sup>heard</sup> from Dr. Sechl in reply to my letter. He writes that your MS never reached him but that it was given to M<sup>r</sup>. Felbermann who undertook to send it to Dr. Sechl. (M<sup>r</sup>. Felbermann) He appears to have forwarded it in a wrapper insufficiently prepaid and the wrapper alone was delivered to Dr. Sechl, the contents being missing.

I have written to urge Dr.

Sechl to make every effort to trace your missing paper through the Postal authorities.

I enclose Dr. Sechl's letter.

We have a short printed abstract are we to print this if the his should not be found or would you kindly prepare a somewhat fuller account of your Paper

I am, dear Sir,
Yours truly
