

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

4 September 1907

Dear Sir,

It gives me much pleasure in the name of the University to thank you for courteously sending to the University Library a copy of your new publication "Kitab ma canî al-naps". I am very glad that you retain pleasant recollections of your visit to Cambridge in 1904. It was my good fortune to sit next to you at the

the dinner in Peterhouse Hall.

I am, Dear Sir,
UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Yours truly,

E. S. Roberts,

Vice-Chancellor

Dr J. Goldziker

Dear Sir

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]