Dear Dr. Goldstein
I am sending you a copy of the New York Times of March 16th, containing an article on the present condition of the Jewish population in Russia. The author of the article, Mr. J. C. O'Farrell, is a man who has been writing on this subject for several years past. He states that the condition of the Jews in Russia has not improved since the time of the pogroms of 1903 and 1905. He also states that the Jewish population in Russia is still increasing, and that there is still a large number of Jews in Russia who are still living in poverty and suffering.
Yours sincerely

Edward A. Miller
