

*

THE MADRASAH.
WELLESLEY SQUARE.
CALCUTTA.

September 7. 1905

My dear Professor Goldziher,

Some time ago
discovered in the library of the Nawab of Rampur among many valuable

works - a copy of

The Kitab al-Furqan of Ibn 'Arabi!

The Nawab very kindly undertook to have a

THE MADRAS H.
WELLESLEY SQUARE.
CALCUTTA.

September 7. 1902

copy of this work made for me. The copy is very beautifully done,

but the copyist was

more of a job than an job. The result is many inaccuracies

and mis-spellings of proper names.

However the book is splendidly done and for the private society of Bombay, and I have as I know you to be interested in it, I am now writing to say that I shall be very happy to lend it to you for a time if you would care to use it.

I have during the past two years been collecting Arabic and Persian MSS.

for the Asiatic Society of Bengal, and I have been fortunate in securing a large number of unique works - and a quantity of MSS. I hope soon

to publish in our Journal a list of the more important ones.

With kind regards

I remain

Yours sincerely

P. Derrison Ross.