

THE HEBREW CLASSICS

25 Volumes

The most celebrated works of post-Biblical Hebrew literature, from the third century of our era to the present time.

The original Hebrew text with complete English translation on opposing pages.

National Alumni

...PUBLISHERS...

DEPARTMENT HEBREW CLASSICS

MANAGING EDITOR
ISIDOR SINGER, Ph.D.

ORIGINATOR OF THE JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA

34 UNION SQUARE
NEW YORKGREAT EVENTS
BY FAMOUS HISTORIANS
An Encyclopedia of Universal History
28 VolumesTHE CLASSICS—GREEK AND LATIN
An Anthology of Classic Literature
15 VolumesLITERATURE OF ITALY
An Anthology of Italian Literature, from Dante to D'Annunzio
16 VolumesIMMORTAL SERIES
Crowned Masterpieces of members of the French Academy

New York, December 22, 1910.

Advisory Board

The Hebrew Classics will embrace Philosophy, Science, Religion, History, Jurisprudence, Poetry and Oratory, with introductions and critical appreciations by the leading Hebrew scholars of our time.

Following is a partial list of those who have volunteered their services on the International Advisory Board.

Wilhelm Bacher, Ph.D.

Principal, Jewish Theological Seminary,
Budapest, Hungary

Henry Berkowitz, D.D.

Rabbi, Congregation Rodeph Shalom,
founder and Chancellor of the Jewish Charitable Society, Philadelphia, Pa.

Ludwig Blau, Ph.D.

Professor, Jewish Theological Seminary,
Budapest, Hungary.

H. G. Enelow, D.D.

Rabbi, Congregation Adath Israel,
Louisville, Ky.

Ludwig Geiger, Ph.D.

Professor of German Literature, Berlin
University; Editor, Allgemeine Zeitung des Judentums, Berlin, Germany.

Louis Grossmann, B. A., D. D.

Professor, Hebrew Union College; Rabbi, Congregation B'nai Yehoshua, Cincinnati,
O.

S. A. Hirsch, Ph.D.

Theological Tutor, Jews' College, London, England.

A. S. Isaacs, Ph.D.

Professor of Semitic Languages, New York University, New York.

Israel Lévi

Associate Rabbi to the Chief Rabbi of Paris; Editor, Revue des Etudes Juives, Paris, France.

J. Leonard Levy, D.D.

Rabbi, Congregation Rodeph Shalom,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

David Neumark, Ph.D.

Professor, Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, O.

Nahum Slousch, Lit.D.

Professor of Hebrew Literature, Sor-bonne, Paris, France.

Hermann L. Strack, Ph.D., D.D.

Professor of Old Testament Exegesis and Semitic Languages, Berlin University, Berlin, Germany.

Prof. Dr. Ignaz Goldziher,
University of Budapest.

My dear Dr. Goldziher:

As you see from the above, I have again succeeded in finding a Goel for what my indulgent friends have been pleased to call my second magnum opus. I am completing the Advisory Board to the number of 24. Permit me, therefore, to invite you in the name of the publisher and in my name to join the Board. You extended me your great moral support and the world wide authority of your name for the Jewish Encyclopedia and I am sure you will not hesitate to do the same for this work which is a kind of Hebrew supplement to the first.

I sent you some time ago the Announcement of the Hebrew Classics, but for safety sake, I beg to send you under separate cover a duplicate copy.

I am, my dear Dr. Goldziher, with best regards,

Very truly yours,