Prof. Ignaz Goldziher,
Budapest, Hungary.

My dear Professor Goldziher:

It will certainly interest you to learn that we have at last reached the stage where literary work can begin in earnest. The first thing is, of course, the proper selection of the works to be included and since volumes one and two, to contain about 560 pages of the size of enclosed sample page, will embrace the Talmud and Mishraim I will be greatly obliged to you if you could find the time to pick out those sections which, in your opinion, will most appeal, both, to the educated Jew and non-Jew.

I add herewith the prospectus ad usum delphini or, in other words, we would not refuse a subscription in behalf of your University.

I am, my dear Professor Goldziher, with my best regards,

Very truly yours,
