Dear Professor Goldziber,

Please accept my thanks for the copies of your Amen and Habit; I have read them with great pleasure. The use of the verb fall in connection with prayer seems to belong to the ancient view that utterances such as blessings and curses (Gen. 27³³ cf. Judg. 17²), had physical form, like the nephech and the rukh. — I hope to have the pleasure of seeing and hearing you in October. When you reach New York please let me know what day you will arrive in Boston: my address is 7 Lowell St. Cambridge. May I ask you to remember me to Dr. Chester when you see him.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,
Crawford H. Toy
