New York.

We take pleasure in forwarding to you. under separate cover, a copy of the new Prospectus of the forthcoming JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA.

The first volume of this work is now wholly in type, and will be ready for publication in a few weeks. The succeeding volumes will follow at brief intervals, with such rapidity as is consistent with accuracy and scholarship-about three volumes a year.

It is now, we think, manifest to those who have watched the progress of this work that it will be produced by our house with the same scrupulous fidelity to facts and freedom from color or bias, with absolute fairness to all, as was the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary, a work the fairness and scholarship of which no critic, to our knowledge, has ever

The financial cost, however, of this work is exceeding by far the limits we had anticipated. Already, before the issue of even the first volume, the cash outlay is about $60,000; the cost of the entire work, it is now estimated, will reach nearly half a million dollars! This large sum we shall cheerfully expend; but will it be thought amiss by any one if we ask the hearty cooperation of all who care for Jewish history to the extent of their subscriptions for the purchase of each volume as issued?

SOAN MAIN

It has been publicly announced that there will be printed in the Appendix of the first volume, under the title "List of Patrons," the names of those who subscribe in advance for the work—subscribing at a special reduced price before the publication of Volume I; the price after publication will be $6.00 per volume. For this Patrons' Edition, if subscribed for now, $8.00 per volume.

As THE JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA is a ploneer work—nothing of the kind heretofore ever having been published—and as these volumes will go into the leading libraries of the world and into many thousands of private libraries, to be a Patron of this Encyclopedia will be no slight honor, since as Patrons the subscribers have assisted materially in its production; thus an honor that will become brighter as generations pass.

In reference to this point a leading Jewish scholar writes:

"A Jew greatly appreciates the so-called Yihus, and it can not but be a pleasant thought to him that one day his children and grandchildren will find his name printed on the pedestal of this great monument of Jewish science and history."

We wish to ask every Jewish scholar, or other representative of the Jewish people, or other lover of Jewish history, to consent to join this list of Patrons by immediately signing and returning to us an Acceptance Blank—see enclosed. Remittance for each volume is to be sent to us only as each volume is ready for delivery.

A scholar who is writing for the Encyclopedia need not send us any wan of this subscription. The amount for each volume will be charged against his account for collaboration, and the difference we will send him in cash; but, if he is willing, we should be glad to have him sign and return to us now his acceptance in time for publication in the list.

May we also ask that if any of you have friends who would care to join with you in signing the Acceptance, please have them sign after your name?

If you consent to the above, kindly sign and return to us the enclosed Acceptance Blank by early mail, and greatly oblige

Yours very truly

FUNK & WAGNALLS COMPANY.
