Dear Sir:

In a book that we are about to publish we desire to print the beliefs of Jews and non-Jews concerning Christ, in this way giving emphasis to the points of agreement between these two great religious bodies rather than to points of difference as has been the case too frequently heretofore.

We enclose you an extended view written for us by Dr. Kohler.

Would you be willing to give us in a sentence or two, or more if you wish, your estimate of Christ which we would be at liberty to publish?

In this way I think we may do something toward a fuller recognition among men of the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of Man.

Yours most respectfully,

I. K. FUNK,

Pres. Funk &amp; Wagnalls Co.
