Dear Sir:

We shall forward you within the next few days, a list of some three or four hundred topics which it has been suggested should be added to the Jewish Encyclopedia Vocabulary.

We shall feel obliged if you will give us your views on the desirability of including or excluding these topics by drawing your pen through such as you wish to exclude, and initialing those which you would deem wise to accept.

We avail ourselves of this opportunity to ask your opinion on a more delicate matter:--Will you favor us with your views on how far you would go in including persons of the type of the following: Baron Aguilar, Barney Barnato, Sam Lewis, and Judge Cardozo; Madame Malibran (Garcia) and Madame Rachel. On each of the cases mentioned above, we would be glad to have your views, but we also desire a general consensus of opinion upon the subject.

Our Illustration Department will be grateful to you if you can suggest topics for colored illustrations for future volumes of the Encyclopedia. The following is a tentative list already submitted: Animals of the Bible, Ark of the Law, Badges, Breastplate, Betrothal Deed, and Birds of the Bible. Please favor us with such additional topics as in your judgment shall be presented.

Yours very truly,

Funk & Wagnalls Co.
