Dear Professor Lukács:

Probably you have heard from your publisher "Deutscher Verlag der Wissenschaften" in Berlin that I had been authorized to ~~translate your laborious article~~ "Zur philosophischen Entwicklung des jungen Marx, 1840-44" into Japanese. I do sincerely hope that I shall be able to make your great work to be readable for Japanese scholars and students.

I have found in your letter to the editor of the "Cahier Du Communism" that you had revised your "Geschichte und Klassenbewusstsein." I am extremely interested in knowing the exact title, the name and address of the publisher, and the date of publishing of the edition.

I should be much obliged to you ~~indeed if you would be good enough to consider the chance by which I could translate the revised edition of~~ "the "Geschichte und Klassenbewusstsein" into Japanese.

Very truly yours,
