Hungary.

My Dear Lukacs,

First of all, may I say how good it is to be writing to you at last. I ought to have done so immediately on my return to England last October, but I have simply not had a moment until my main lecture course finished in April.

We are very anxious to publish from time to time a review of what is appearing in the "Forum" which we don't see. I wonder whether we could arrange an exchange, in which case would you send "Forum" to me c/o Lawrence & Wishart, 81, Chancery Lane, London, W.C.2. We are hoping to publish abstracts of all foreign journals doing somewhat similar work to "Modern Quarterly" and this means that once a year we would hope to print reviews of Hungarian publications.

/Over

You will be interested to know that we are printing a review of your book on The Younger Hegel in the forthcoming number of "Modern Quarterly", and we had a long review by Roy Pascal of your book on Goethe in an earlier issue. We also published a synopsis of your speech at the Wroclaw Conference. I am sorry we had no space to print the whole of it.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. John Lewis.
