Professor Georg Lukacs
Belgrad rkp. 2.V/5
Budapest, Hungary

Dear Professor Lukacs:

In July we received your request for examination copies of AN AMERICAN DIALOGUE; SMALL TOWN IN MASS SOCIETY; MONT ST. MICHEL AND CHARTRES; and A HISTORY OF EUROPE, which were offered to you in a mailing of the Doubleday Books of College Interest. Feffer & Simons represents Doubleday in Hungary. The books were dispatched to you when your request was received.

The above-mentioned books should have arrived by now, or they will arrive very shortly. After you have had a chance to look them over and evaluate them, we would be interested to learn your reaction to the books. Would they be suitable for use in your classes? Have any of your students had a chance to investigate the books? Would they be good source materials for your library?

If you should wish to order any of these books, you may write directly to Feffer & Simons for our assistance to you. If you prefer you may place your orders with the local bookstore of your choice. For your convenience we have a European office:

Feffer & Simons, Inc.
Mauritskade 1
The Hague, Holland,

if you should wish to call on them for assistance.

It is a pleasure to have been of service to you, and I hope you will call on us again for our assistance to you with your educational needs and purchases.

Sincerely,

FEFFER & SIMONS, INC.
