Dear Professor Lukács,

after a long and unavoidable delay, caused by the difficult political situation we are living in this country, we finally managed to transfer today to ARTISJUS our outright payment of US$300.00 for a first printing of 5,000 copies of your work KULONOSSEG, which we are translating from the Italian edition, published under the title PROLEGOMENI A UN'ESTETICA MARXISTA, and from the German manuscript which you were kind enough to send us.

We hope you will receive this payment without any trouble and are pleased to inform you that the volume of your literary essays that we published last year is already out of print. We plan to publish a second edition, and Mr. Leandro Konder is revising the text of his translation for this purpose.

We shall not fail to send you complimentary copies of both books when they are issued.

With our best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Friends,

In addition to ENSAÍOS SOBRE LITERATURA, by Georg Lukács, published last year, and to KULONOSSEG, whose translation into the Portuguese language is almost finished at this moment, we would like to publish a third volume of essays by the famous and justly respected and admired Hungarian author.

We would include in this new volume an essay he published in the French magazine ESPRIT - ART LIBRE OU ART DIRIGÉE (if we correctly remember it) - and five others we would translate from the Italian edition, published by Einaudi, under the title IL MARXISMO E LA CRITICA LETTERARIA.

Please discuss this matter with Prof. Lukács and be kind enough to give us a prompt reply. As to terms, we suggest the same we applied to KULONOSSEG.

Looking forward to hearing from you, we are,

Sincerely yours,

Maria Emilia Reis
