My dear Dr Goldziker,

I was much obliged to you for your kind post-card about Judges; and I have now to thank you for sending me your paper on Hyperbolische Typen in Arabischen, which I have found both interesting and informing.

As was anticipated, Robertson Smith has had a weary time since we saw him at the Oriental Congress, but he has always been cheerful and brave, and was fortunately able to do all the statutory work required of him as professor last term. He hopes to be able to do the same during the term which has just begun, but he is still far from strong. The last accounts I have from him are more hopeful than those I have had for some time, and he looks forward to being able to undertake a journey to the south of Europe in spring, if the improvement in his health continues.

With kind regards

I am

Yours very truly

John Black
