My dear Mr. ...
I have been thinking of you
very much and how happy
I was when I saw you in London and how much I
enjoyed your company.

The winter has been very pleasant - I have been very much interested in the progress of the war.

I have been thinking of you
very much and how happy
I was when I saw you in London and how much I
enjoyed your company.

I have been thinking of you
very much and how happy
I was when I saw you in London and how much I
enjoyed your company.

Yours truly,
Alfred Russel Wallace
