

Univ. of Cant.

have

M. Ignatius Goldziker,
Professor of Semitic Philology,
University,
Buda Pesth.

11.2

The Lodge,
Queens' College,
Cambridge.

5 May 1904.

My dear Sir,

It is hoped that certain of the members of the Academies which meet in London this month will visit Cambridge on Saturday, May 28. I have the pleasure of informing you that the Council of the Senate of this University invite you to receive the Honorary Degree of Doctor in Letters. The Degree would be conferred on you at a Congregation to be held on May 28.

May I ask for the favour of as early a reply as possible.

I have the honour to be

Yours very faithfully,

J. R. Chase

Vice-Chancellor of the University

M. Ignatius Goldzicher. of Cambridge.