NEW YORK CITY

April 21, 1915.

Dear Professor Goldziher:

Let me thank you for your kind postal of the 11th ult. and for the information contained therein. I shall incorporate it in my Notes, although it appears to me a little doubtful that Saadia should have misread his for his. For the fact is that this Fragment which I am publishing is a part of the long lost reply of Saadia to Hiwi Al-Balkhi's 200 Questions. It is written entirely in Hebrew and I am sure it will be a great surprise to all scholars. It is now going through the press, and I hope that within the course of two months I shall have the pleasure of forwarding to you a copy of it.

In regard to the spelling of Hiwi's name, I call attention in a note to Poznanski<sup>essay</sup> that it should really be written Hajjujah, but for convenience sake I keep to the spelling of Hiwi, current up till now.

Thanking you once more for your courtesy, and with best regards from myself and my colleagues, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Israel Dandekar
