

Berlin, Saturday

Sehr geehrtes Herr Prof.!

Your letter was so wonderfully kind that it took me wholly by surprise, and I could hardly at first realize how great my good fortune was. I simply cannot thank you enough for such goodness, which I feel I owe to your friends Macdonald and Snodgrass. I must try to show myself worthy of such an <sup>unparalleled</sup> opportunity as that which your letter opens out to me.

I hope to leave Berlin on Monday. I shall stay the night in Vienna, and unless I change my plan, come on to Bad Reuth on Tuesday afternoon. It is possible therefore that I shall have the honour of seeing you on Tuesday evening. If not, some time

on Wednesday

Yours with sincere respect and thanks

W. H. D. Fairbank

I must say that I am very much
pleased to hear
of your success in your business
and
hope
that you
will continue
to
succeed
in
all
your
endeavors.

I hope to leave Boston in the near future, and when I leave my place, care is to be taken of the property there. I shall have the pleasure of seeing you in the near future.
