Beloved Professor

My wife and I are sending you by this mail a box of ^{مأكولات} — also only 20 kilograms, which is ^{أقل من} ^{الحدود} ^{المسموحة} ! We beg you and dear Frau Goldfinger to accept this as a small token of our unending gratitude to you both for your great kindness to me in 1911. We wanted to send you much more than this, but we were not allowed by the Ministry of Provisions here. It may be possible however to send again after an interval, and for this reason we beg you to inform us

(1) are these articles the most acceptable

you can think of:

- (2) what would you like repeated,
- (3) what might be omitted,
- (4) what might be suggested. — In this Connection please remember that heavy foodstuffs are undesirable because 10. kilo's is such a small weight.

Or perhaps you would prefer to purchase some things obtainable in the country?

I want to say that this should have been sent LAST WINTER.
Many things have conspired to delay it, but I do not feel excused. I pray God know that you are well and that it is not too late to be of some service to you. Adieu my dear friend

Your affect. and obliged
