84.

My dear Natri,

I beg leave to send you with the best possible recommendation Rabbi Mordechai Deutsch, the husband of ^{my} step-sister, who is generally my brother in law who is a downright Shaover by profession, a Jewish Doctor in the strictest sense of the word, and who of course came here to empty my purse as far as possible.

Knowing, as You do, that my purse suffers of stricture, and knowing as I do, that You have the strings of a much wiser purse, namely that of the Community in your hand, I will ask You to make the Köses for this time my exchequer and to participate bonum Rabbi Deutsch in the fund of charity.

This is all what I ask and nothing else, like care of the Rabbi, he is a first rate scamp in spite of his considerable scholastic knowledge

Yours sincerely
A. Vaumburg
