My dear Dr. Goldziher,

I am afraid I must trouble you once more! Would you be good enough to let me know some of the important works on Pre-Islamic Arabia. I am concerned with a paper on 'Religious Movements' in Arabia before Islam, but there seems to be a dearth of authorities on that subject. Your paper with me Cassin de Perceval, Wellhausen's Reste, Krichel & some of the other works but I should very much like to know of some other modern works on that subject -

I have for you an excellent manuscript of the Hazrat's Jum'at-ul-^{Ula} - Nasab which has furnished me a great deal of new & interesting information on that subject but the history of the religion of the Arabs before Islam is apparently shrouded in mystery - If you could offer me some assistance I should be greatly obliged to you - I have taken the liberty of enclosing is a small note you so kind that you sent - a volume in Dr Gage's Reg. Hist. Acad. you find for the Librarian of the Reg. Hist. you number 30 & copy of the manuscript in the date like in the history of the 653 A. H.

The manuscript is earlier than you find a short description of the I shall be glad to see you send me your excellent work on the subject I have for you a copy of the manuscript for which I have the note of the Librarian of the Reg. Hist.

for the manuscript - I do hope to trust you will take it up - yourself to visit the ms of Metal wa Nahal.

Believe me, Honored Master,

Yours truly
