

1907 August 31

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY,

CAMBRIDGE.

Dear Professor,

This official acknowledgment has been waiting on my table to be signed, because it was known that I should wish to sign it myself and not by deputy. I shall lay the book on the table at the first meeting of the Library Syndicate when the term begins.

The University is proud of your connexion with it;
the only thing I regret
is that William Wright
and William Robertson Smith did not live
to be present in May 1904. Though I am not an Oriental scholar,
your name was familiar
to me in their time
as that of one deserving
to be had in honour.
May you long be spared

to continue your distinguished contributions to knowledge!

I am, dear Professor,
yours very truly
Francis Jenkinson
L. Warrar

Professor Goldziher, Litt. D.
