My dear Mr. Goldyther,

Thank you very much for writing to Bezaled and also for your advice about the lines of title to my text. I shall do as you suggest and put it in English.

Your bundle of Vols on Muslim Education reached me safely and I thank you much therefore. But I suspect I shall have to send them back to you very soon. I have put Hastings' list of rubrics into a kind of order and you are down for the article on Education. You are down for other things as well and I pray and beseech at work transcribing. The text is very like that in Habicht. By the way even in the Calcutta edition I find the where الوجه, e.g. Vol. i, p. 29, l. 13. In Galland's MS I find الوجه.

Write but printing for me as with Yours most faithfully, Samson B. Muddenda.

you want to print me. You will see how I have arranged things. The main article is broken up into sections and you have, I think, the parts you would like. You will recognize, too, that this is no ordinary little article of four or five pages, nothing in the least to be compared to that in the fewish encycl.
You will be able to free your mind here in concise form on all the results of your life. If you want write your big book on the nature and history of Islam, you can write here a little one.

I have now put the photos of Galland's MS and one book
