Sept. 17th 1906.

My dear Goldzyher,
 I have just had a letter from Hastings and I learn that the second of your alternatives — the postponing for some considerable time of your articles — is possible. For the content of them alphabetically — Da'ūd as-Zāhiri, Education, Eschatology we can wait a couple of years. Ibn 'Abd al-Wakkāb can be put under W. The letter M (Muhammad etc.) cannot be reached for three or four years yet.

I hope you have been found a very clear out time at Aberdeen and find the Aberdeen F. B. D. a comfortable fit. Did they give you good beer there or was it all whiskey? I don't mind to see Remondou's support.
 Did it beat the one at St. Louis?
 That was the most impressive thing I ever saw. Give him a party to your berth.
 Some time we will manage to get together again - at Budapest or elsewhere! Yours faithfully August B. Woodbridge

Please regard the above notes as confidential.

Now under these conditions what can you do for us?
 I am quite certain that you can be more thorough, more detailed and more scientific in the articles for Hortwig than in your American letters.
 They must be intelligible when heard by a general audience; the Hortwig articles are to be read by students.

Besides, we had you first.
 Please consider then, what you can do; how many and what articles you can take on these conditions and what you must leave. Besides those mentioned above, I have got you down for Hbr. Haynes
