

853 Bayview Ave., Hartford, Conn. U.S.A. 18/iii/13.

I have myself some things of same things of Sympati.
that kind of

My dear Evelyn, Her.
What hearty thanks for your post-card and the reference in it. That is fairly new to me. I have already come across references to distinctly pornographic books by him but never any trace of the books. You will remember too, Hall's references as the fall in moral decency after blow in his Ancient Babylon Poetry. These are some things in the old poetry but I have never found anything like what come later. And the women of the Jahiliya had much more the standing of the Hebrew women. You see I don't believe at all that Muhammad injured things for the Arab woman.

With this I enclose proof of unimportant on the ZZ. I don't believe the above entry read with one Z. You will find the witness in JRAS for 1903, pp. 18 ff. Also the passage in which he deals with the name is not in the Arzān but in his Shail & the Khatibi Hatibi of Bayhād, and how to put it that I don't know. I am Khalilān of the mitrak and covered his references. My experience with the Khalilān made me very dubious of his accuracy; he ~~is~~ made a great mess of al-Ethi life.

Please remember us both most kindly to your wife.

Fervently Yours,
Duncan B. Macdonald.

P.S. bit Manignat, work on al-Hallaj good!

a little article which will, I think interest you. This winter I have been able to write next to nothing. I have had about 20 clear hours a week. In consequence I am completely used up and this summer I must rest.

So my wife and I are going to come to Europe and shall spend the summer in France, probably at Kouen with a short time in Paris. Perhaps I may at last learn to speak some French.

In a day or two I shall send you a copy of my final Ali Baba article.
You will have found some things of mine too, in the Sayden Encyclopedia. I sent of the Shayālī article a few days ago. You see I am