My dear Goldziker,

I Thank you very much for the article and reviews which you have sent. The press paper has cleared up several points for me. Wittmann & Becker I shall try to get hold of myself.

I hope your health is now much better and that Aberdeen did you good. Please let me know soon what your plans are. I have no reply yet to my last letter about the Dictionary.

You will be glad to know that the way is clear now for me to publish the Galland MS in extenso. All that is needed is time.

With best greetings to
Mrs. Goldziker.

Faithfully,
D. B. Macdonald
