Dear Saldyther, With this there should come to you my opening lecture at the Seminary.
The only point of interest in it for you will probably be my view of al-Shayzāli's attitude. It is the way in which I have long understood him.
But now I am writing little articles for Houtsma. One of 500 words takes as much labour as a long essay! Ali Baba too, will soon appear.
I am reading the last proof.
For that in my isolation here I can have no help but that of my wife.
But I have to thank you for several things all full of instruction - your Hanbalites, and Wauer and Heldke's Kerbela and some reviews by you - but not yet a review of my Religious Attitude. Is it so bad that you won't speak of it? But putting to you both from us both. Faithfully W. Woodcock.
