Dear Goldy here. Thank you for your efforts with Snouck. He now suggests that you should do it! Margoliouth wouldn't do at all. He is eccentric to the last degree. I fear that ~~perhaps~~ Arnold does not know enough and also he has no time. His articles, so far, have been very scrappy. I understand that Sir Charles wrote to the Principal but I have nothing direct and know no details. There will be nothing new now until the beginning of October. I will look out for your ~~also~~ ^{also} ~~to~~ ^{to} ~~yield~~. The subject does interest me but it also puzzles me. You must be careful and not overdo it. So easy! I am going very easy myself, die cannot write when travelling about and in such uncertainty. I shall be thankful when I am on the steamer for Egypt and grinding away at modern Egyptian. But about that article, could and would Sir Charles do it? Or must we do it between us? It will not be needed for quite a long time. But don't overdo it. Our very best greetings and regards to you both. Most sincerely yours

W. Macdonald.
