My dear Goldyther,

It is long, long since I have heard from you and my wife and I are very anxious about you and yours. I hear indirectly from Snowden but I wish I could get a word from yourself.
Saidcher, in spite of reminders, has not yet sent me an answer to your questions and I suspect you have yourself found it by this time. Can you tell me anything about Chauvin's family? I corresponded with him for years. He left at least a daughter - did he not? From Nöddeke I can not get any answer. I fear he feels badly toward me on account of my nationalities.
But surely if anything is to survive this it must be the republic of letters. I would not for anything that the least should come between you and me. Faithfully & affectionately Yours, D. B. Macdonald.
