Dear W. Goldyker,

Thank you very much for the reviews. I have filed them to go in the next volume of your collected works which I bind. Some day you will need to collect and reprint yourself.
There are very many of your post papers which are quite inaccessible to me.

With this I send two Nations with my poetry article and a review of Lambert's Autobiography.
I hope you will agree with my poetry article in its present form. It came to me afterwards that I had not made my meaning clear to you, so I changed the expression.

Always yours faithfully,
Duncan B. Macdonald

Why the Baldwin comes to you don't hold me responsible for the sermon. I am not.
