Dear V. G. Goldysher,

Very many thanks for the reviews which I & we read with much pleasure and profit. Butler's book I had already read and reviewed in the New York 'Nation'. His identification of Cyrus as the Mugawgis seems to me to be certain, whatever we must hope to his explanation of the name. The other books I have not yet seen. When I am going to review my

I am trying to find money just now to back my publication of Salland's MS but money is very "tight". It looks like a vain hunt.

I have been much disappointed by Stuart's Literature orobe. Pizzi's little Mameli Hoeppli seem to be much better. Have you any idea when Nicholas's book will appear? Yours
Duncan B. Macdonald
