Dear Goldziker, Saurdner has sent me some articles by him with a request that I should forward them to you and so I now do. I hope they will reach you safely. I sent you a p.c. some little time ago and I heard from Nichols two or three days ago.
His Kitāb al-lumā is now published; unhappily it must be a while before your copy reaches you. From Froude I have not heard for a long time and the Encycl. seems to have stopped. That is great the demand for articles. I should be writing 22 just now but am not. I have too much teaching. From Nöddeke I never hear now; perhaps it is as well. But I remember you all every night. With all good wishes for you and yours Faithfully Yours,
J. B. Macdonald.
