Dear Goldypher,

Some days ago your welcome letter of Oct. 19th arrived, but the proof of your review of my Aspects has not reached me. I fear it is lost. Do not let the unimportant side of the matter worry you. Both Gardner and I will understand. So too, your Unitarian position. I have sent Gardner's notes on to him in Egypt.
There was nothing new for me in them. Al-G. was very careful in hadith. I hope you will consent to go to Egypt. You could do a great deal of good there. Don't be afraid of the journey. Cairo now is very comfortable. You refer somewhere to Al-Mutan-walili as being fond of improper stories. Can you give me a reference for it?
I don't believe that public taste in Baghdad was ever much against such things.
It oppresses too much everywhere in literature. Their standard of course that they led me to all that I should do is to be sure that I had done my best but what was it?
