Dear Siedeyther,

Your card of the 11th has just come. And you will by this time have my answer to your former card as to where I shld. like you to review my book. I now add that mine is the 3rd vol. in the Hartford-Lauson lectures which were established four or five years ago. Jealous usage the first on Comparative Religion and De Groot of Leyden the second on Chinese Religion. Another will be out very soon on Japanese Religion by a Jap whose name I can't remember.

Of course I know that there will be much in the book with which you will not agree but I hope it will be only in its misinical aspect. So remember please, my purpose in writing it and the very ignorant audience for which I wrote. I wanted above all to teach them sympathy and also how an intelligent man could be a Muslim.

Heartly thanks for your under-

Writing a review. Our best regards to your mother & W. & Eleanor.
