Dear Dr. Goldzicher,

My very best thanks for the two parts of the Türkische Bibliothek which have just reached me. It is very good of you to remember me so.

at this moment I am writing a little notice of "Abd ar-Razzāq, the Süfi," for the "Moham. Encyclop." and find my materials are very limited. Where can I learn anything about the questions which Dr. v. Jaks addressed to 'ali?

The proof of my St Louis papers has been sent to me, but I have not yet heard of yours. I have just written to enquire.

I hope your health is steadily improving and that your work for Hastings is making good progress. Qur'an will go to Fränkel as you suggested and Chadita to Motylinski.
Mr. Macdonald joins in warmest greetings to Mr. Goldzicher and

Yours always
Hermann
