My dear Macdonald! I have not been very well this autumn and nevertheless I had to do a great deal of professional work etc. In all directions my correspondential duties stopped and I am now in beginning to recover which was failed by me the last months. The approaching holy days give me a good opportunity.

Did you get my "Vorlesungen"? What is your impression? I am curious to see your new book. When will it appear?

I will also review it, ~~in~~ in one of the magazines ~~to~~ I am well so contribute. Let it <sup>be</sup> sent in all cases to the Theologische Literaturzeitung. In the last week some honours were conferred upon me, being elected foreign member of the Göttingen and of the Berlin Academy.

These times reach you near the Christmas-time. Mrs. Goldschmidt and myself send to you and Mrs. Macdonald our best wishes for a happy new year. كثيراً وأتمنى
Yours faithfully
J. Goldschmidt
