Dear Macdonald! The number of RHR is not yet appeared. I hope to get a few extra-copies of my review and then I shall send you one without delay. The article is not short, about 10 pages. The number (sept. october) must come out in a few days.

As for Mutawarril and the discover literature I said something in my review of Bröckelmann I, Göttinger Gel. Anzeigen 1899 no. 6 p. 456

For the moment I feel not strong enough in spirits to go to foreign countries to teach and to act publicly. Some months ago I got also a flattering invitation from the University of Upsala for a series of lectures in German. Perhaps my humour will change; for this moment I am not very „unternehmungslustig“. I am now working on a paper: „Theology of Fakhr al-din al-Razi“. Not the whole matter, but only some points of that question are treated.

neglected Yours faithfully Goldschmidt
