Bombay, 27th April 1855.

My dear friend! Yes, you did inform me on the receipt of Sumner's Malda - book.
But I neglected to thank you for Journal of Ethics where I read your article on Mislim education with great interest. Now all purposes on the next future depend on the question, ~~whether~~ ^{either} I can get my freedom in Juni-July or either I must wait till autumn.

It is a capital question for all ^{my} scientific designs, I hope to can fulfil in the first case. The next thing I must write is a "Dentridge" ~~one~~ on the late Vice-President of our Academy, Count Seiza Krüner - died three weeks ago - a thorough scholar in Aelteric philology and history and a true friend of mine. For that essay I must once more read all the books ~~of~~ and essays of Krüner, written all in Hungarian and Latin. Getting my freedom I will see to prepare the Hastings - article on Islam, but you must allow me some month for that work.

It would be very difficult to write other things than I did for Temburner; but I will try. Do you maintain your purpose to undertake an Oriental travel in June? It would be very pleasant to see you here.

It is no doubt, that Houtman will be very happy, to be sure of your collaboration for the A-articles indicated. I did not ^{yet} choose my part in that Encyclop.

Many thousand compliments to Mrs. Macdonald.

Faithfully
Soldner
