be a great convenience if S.W.

Dear Sir,

I must apologize for not having acknowledged sooner your two postcards.

The correction you wished made on page 24 of your paper has been attended to and yesterday

I forwarded to your address the final revise you asked for.

I trust that you will find all your corrections have been observed and that you will return me the final revise for press with the least possible delay.

There remains now only the index to complete the work and it is to be hoped that in the course of next month both vols will be issued to members.

I should be glad if you would let me know through what channel you wish your copy of the Transactions to be sent. It would be a great convenience if all the members of our Congress were to instruct some bookseller or agent in London to apply at 22 Albemarle St (the Royal Asiatic Soc^y.) for the books.

I am, dear Sir,
Most faithfully Yours
E. Delmar Morgan
