Dear Sir:

I am sending you by this mail a badge of the International Congress of Arts and Science. I respectfully request that you wear this badge when you arrive at the dock in New York, so that our reception committee can more easily identify you. It will be, we think, the best means of quick recognition and of rendering you special assistance in complying with the customs regulations.

It would be advisable for you to wear the badge on your coat as well when you reach St. Louis so that our reception committee may recognize you there.

Yours respectfully,

Simon Newcomb
