TELEGRAMS: BIBLOS LONDON

Dear Sir, I am sending you slips 39-66 of Kinship. I quite agree with your sentiments respecting this tribute of respect to our great scholar Robertson Smith, & I feel keenly the responsibility of seeing his work through the press. You will see that one of your notes has not been used. This is because ^{new} it would lead one too far if one were to introduce ^{to} analogies & parallels from other peoples. But if you still think your note important, I am ready to consider it again & do my best to have it inserted.

I am glad my Totemism interested you. It may help me to write my Introduction to Kinship (2nd ed.). I shall not be at the Oriental Congress this year, (I am too busy with the Encyclopaedia Biblica. I hope to be more free in the future when this is ~~finished~~ finished.) In addition to this I know so few of the great Orientalists. ~~It~~
Believe me yours sincerely
S. A. Cook
