Dear Mr. Lukács,

We have received your letter of the 14th February, and beg you to correspond with us in French or English because nobody here at our firm - and this is unfortunate - knows the German language.

We understand you want to reserve the rights to the translation of your books into other languages than the Portuguese. This is only natural, and in our letter we made clear that we are interested in the Portuguese language alone.

We are pleased to know that you have accepted our offer and beg you to prepare and send to us a contract in two copies, one of which shall be returned to you with our signature and our advance payment of $200.00.

We take this opportunity to say that we are also interested in translating into the Portuguese language, for publication in Brazil, your work REALISM IN OUR TIME. You may have received by now the letter we addressed to THE MERLIN PRESS LTD. (London), which published it in English. Please arrange with them that a copy of the book is sent to us at your earliest convenience.

With our kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,
