Mr. Georg Luckács
Belgrád rkp. 2
BUDAPEST V, HUNGRIA

Dear Mr. Lukács,

the political events in Brazil, as you know, created difficult problems for a great number of people, including myself, who were engaged in promoting a structural reform in our society and trying to make it more democratic and free from imperialistic control.

My firm is under investigation and I am under suspicion of being a subversive agent... But we are fighting back with everything we can in the field of peaceful resistance, from legal means to counter-propaganda, and I am sure that sooner or later truth will prevail and we shall restore our march toward a better future.

I am writing this letter to say that in spite of all our problems I want to proceed with my plan to publish a volume of your literary essays. I am pleased to inform you that the complete manuscript is in my hands already and kindly ask you to send me the contract containing the basic clauses we have already agreed upon: a royalty of 8% on the retail price and an advance of US$200.00.

As soon as I hear from you again I will send the manuscript to the printing plant.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,
EDITORA CIVILIZAÇÃO BRASILEIRA S/A.
