BUDAPEST (Ungheria)

Dear Professor Lukacs:

I have received your kind letter of September 5. I already know of the letter which Mrs. Heller had written to us, and we had the matter under consideration; as a matter of fact, your guarantee of the importance and the seriousness of the work was the determining factor in our decision, and we have therefore decided favorably. We have written the same today to the author.

I should like to take this occasion to tell you how honored we would be to be able to offer to the Italian public a work of yours. In particular, we are interested in your work on the young Marx, which has not yet been published in Italy. We have contacted the publisher Neske in Germany, from whom we are still awaiting the contract; if you have the chance to remind him of it, we should be most grateful to you if you would do so. At any rate, whatever you might wish to offer to us for publication, we should like to assure you that it would be given the most careful consideration.

With best regards,

Yours sincerely,
