

Columbia University in the City of New York

DEPARTMENT OF SEMITIC LANGUAGES

March 7th 1913.

Dear Professor Goldzicher

I have been for some time interested in 'Abd al-Kāhīr's' كتاب الفرق بين الفرق and I have suggested to one of my students to prepare a translation of the book. In your review of J.S.M.S. LXV, you have given a number of most useful textcritical notes. I do not suppose that, since then, any further Ms. has come to light than the Berlin one used by Muhammad Badr. But it has occurred to me that perhaps some student of yours might be engaged upon a similar task: and I am writing today to assure myself that this is not the case.

Kindly remember Mr. Gottheil and myself to Mr. Goldziker; and, with cordial regards to you from both of us,

Believe me to be,

Very faithfully yours

Richard Gottheil.