From Prof. No. East 72nd Street
New York, February 13th 1895

Prof. Dr. G. Goldziher,

Dear Sir: Although I am very much pained and disappointed that one of my father's dearest friends did not respond to my appeal sent at last November for scientific essays to be published to his memory by the greatest living Oriental scholars, I still make bold to write to you in hopes of receiving an article from your learned pen after all. The book, which will be issued about next May 1896 under the title "Oriental Studies in memory of Alexander Kohut, of S. Calvary Co. of Berlin, will contain essays by Prof. Max Müller, T. K. Cheyne, D. H. Müller, Ed. Glaser, F. Hommel, A. Neubauer, M. Steinschneider, H. Hirschfeld, H. Derenbourg, S. Fraenkel, Julius Fuerst and others. May I not hope from you - the greatest living Arabic scholar, some large or small essay on Islam & Judaism, or on any topic connected with Arabia? Surely Kohut was your friend & compatriot and deserved the honor. Do you wish for remuneration?

Yours truly
George A. Kohut
