April 5th, 1904.

My dear Professor Goldzyher, It is in my mind that you once wrote to me that the Kisāla of ash-Shāfi'ī is was a book calling for study and attention. It, in the Cairo edit. of 1312, has been on my shelves for some time and I have often thought of attacking it. Now there comes an invitation, that, without doubt, you know of, to write a 16 page article.

and certain that you can send to Ft. Lewis. Lovingly to the Framers

Yours faithfully,

Demetrius B. Macdonald

Do you think that a Notice of arb. Shāfi'ī's book would be in place? I could make a complete translation as well which might be published elsewhere.

Juybol's excellent book I have now got and am working into, though my Dutch is almost a minus quantity. It is evidently an admirable piece of work. I wish he would complete Sachau's Muhammads Kecht with a treatment of the chapters which Sachau omitted.

I hope it is now settled
