

50 Windsor Ave., Hartford, Conn.
 Dec. 23rd, 1904.

My dear Mr. Goldyberber,

This is only a line to enclose these photographs, such as they are. They will serve at least you Anderson — just did if the bobbin will fit.

 I took one other of you, but it came out badly as I did not focus properly. Of course, and all my interior attempts there is not a sign on the films.

As to the Galland, I am most obstinate, when I once get started. We are all that in Scotland. So I have sent Macler carte blanche for expense and exhorted him only to hurry. If I am too late for the Festschrift I will publish in the J R A S and send a copy to Nöldeke, as a supplement.

With best New Year greetings — we still keep New Year in Scotland and it is Yule with us the old festival — to Mr.
Goldyber and yourself from us both

Yours Faithfully,
Duncan B. Macdonald
